

Christian DIOR

PARIS RESORT 2012

Christian Dior Resort is a collection that consistently translates from season to season, influencing many on the runways and on the streets. The collection this year is particularly in tune with the fashion zeitgeist; sophisticated and irreverent, there was something for everyone. From gorgeous embroidered kaftans to delightful crocheted sundresses and gamine drop-waist tunics, the collection captures the feeling of 'fresh and new' while remaining true to Dior's elegant lines.
